What our teachers are saying

"The user-friendly tutorials are short and to the point. I like how they explain exam questions as well as give tips for how to apply their knowledge. As a teacher, I like how we can view student engagement and set tasks. Results are quick to access so I can target students who need assistance."

"Besides the obvious teaching and learning benefits, e.g. flipped classroom and past exam questions, Edrolo has the potential to support students who may be reluctant to ask questions in class or lack confidence in their abilities in the classroom. Edrolo provides another avenue for students to discreetly answer or investigate any concepts that they are having difficulty with. Edrolo provides immediate support."

Theory Master

As a perfect resource to accompany what's taught in the classroom, Edrolo content is designed, produced, and filmed with experienced educators in Australia. Edrolo is crafted around the relevant curriculum and aligned to each study design or syllabus.

A powerful solution that maximises teachers' time and meets the needs of every individual learner.

For students

Accessible on any device, at any time, our video lessons are designed to engage students of all learning styles and abilities. Presented by educators, each lesson contains a clear and interactive explanation of essential concepts, followed by guided application of learning through exam-style questions. We don't just cover the content - we address the skills as well.

Edrolo's study planner also helps students plan and track their study and identify their strengths and weaknesses so they are well-prepared and confident when completing assessments, trial exams and final exams.

For teachers

The time you spend sourcing materials, creating assessments, marking, and analysing results is dramatically reduced with the use of Edrolo - and your students' understanding of their own progress and struggle spots will improve by leaps and bounds.

Edrolo integrates easily with your school's LMS, and offers reporting dashboards that track and show student progress, self-ratings, and individual results throughout the course...and much more!

Exam Master

Unparalleled by any other resource, Exam Master provides valuable practice with exam-style questions paired with comprehensive video solutions. With auto-marking and advanced diagnostic tools, you'll be able to ensure your students are focusing on the right areas all year round.

Practice exams

Exam Master features quick progress checks and comprehensive practice exams at a topic level - available to print or complete online. These assessments contain past exam questions with full video solutions and self-marking guides to support students' exam preparation.

Immediate feedback and diagnostics

The true power of Edrolo is in the easy-to-understand data it provides to teachers. Regardless of your subject area or teaching style, Edrolo will give you insights early and often, allowing you to prepare lessons and activities that target your students' actual needs.

For students

Prep for exams like never before. After students complete past exam questions, Edrolo highlights specific parts of the course that need attention.

Answered a question incorrectly? Edrolo provides full worked solutions and a marking guide that supports improvement.

Students have the opportunity to revisit incorrectly answered questions at the end of the course.

For teachers

Edrolo provides teachers with strong diagnostic tools that will ensure students' strengths and weaknesses are measured. This data can assist teachers to plan for targeted learning and focus on areas of need for each student or across classes, before the final exams.

Once students complete a practice exam, Edrolo displays each student's performance on each key knowledge area.

The data you usually get 2 months after the final exam is now available 2 months before!
